

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT

Reference: CGB-CC-0155

State of LouisianaCounty of Caddo Parish

Before the undersigned, an officer duly commissioned by the laws of Louisiana, on this 6th day of April,

2006, personally appeared Vickie L. Stephens-Roberson

who having been first duly sworn depose and say:

Per your request, Vickie Roberson, the producer of the Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show has submitted additional information on behalf of her company, Vickie Roberson Productions Corporation. She has included 3 estimates that details the cost of providing close-caption for The Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show.

Because of limited funds, The Vickie Roberson Show has only aired 3 times this year (2006). In an attempt to stay on the air, as of January, 2006 per Mrs. Roberson's request, the show has reduced it's air time from an one hour show ($450) per week to a half hour show ($225) per week. (See Attached UPN 21:KPXJ Advertising Agreements.)

Being that Mrs. Roberson is no longer employed as of February 2006, she no longer has personal finances from her former job to help the show stay a float. (See enclosed job separation notice). Please keep in mind that Mrs. Roberson's company was only incorporated in September of 2005, (only 7 months) and that The Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show has been on air sporadically for only 5 months last year and only 3 episodes has aired this year because of financial reasons. Please keep in mind that the cost of closed caption will cost more than the cost to air her weekly show.

Because the company has only come up with funds to air 3 episodes this year (2006), Close caption, a sign language interpreter, or text on the screen will all cause an undue burden on this struggling company. We see no other reasonable alternatives at this time. If, we are forced to provide closed captioning, our only alternative will be to go off the air.

Please review all previously sent documentation. Again, Ms. Roberson's enclosed financial documents supports the fact that she produces her show by means of her limited personal finances and that providing closed captioning would cause an undue burden for her as well as her company. (See previously sent bank statements & check images paid to UPN21/KPXJ)

Again, the program showcases local talent such as singing, and dancing and includes very little talking. Mrs. Roberson usually introduces the acts then closes the show. The goal of her program is to showcase and expose local talent. Ms. Roberson hopes that you view all enclosed documents and contact her soon to let her know if the provided information and documents supports the company/program's request for exemption from close captioning. If more information is needed, please let Mrs. Roberson know so that she and her company can continue serving their community.

The Organization:

Vickie Roberson Productions Corporation is a company that produces local programs such as the Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show, stage plays, and talent shows. The business was officially incorporated on September 1, 2005. We are a for profit business. Our mission is to expose local and undiscovered talent.

For company verification or further information, you may contact the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-829-4933. The corporation's Federal Tax ID/ Employer ID Number is included in an enclosed document from The IRS. For more information about Vickie Roberson Productions Corporation, feel free to contact us at 318-208-3638, or email us at vickierobersonproductions@yahoo.com.

The Televised Program:

The Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show is a local show that showcases local talent in the Ark-La-Tex. The program showcases local talent such as singing, dancing, and instrumental entertainment. Our talent show has very little talking. I usually introduce the singing or dancing acts and then close the show. The aim of this televised program is to showcase and expose local talent. The show is televised on UPN 21 KPXJ on Saturdays from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM. For UPN show verification, you may contact Mica Heartman at (318) 861-5808 or (318) 461-0070.

The Undue Burden of Closed Captioning:

My show works on a very low budget with a 3 man volunteer staff which consist of my family. I have to pay 2 camera men to shoot and edit my show. I pay this amount out of my pocket. I also have to rent a facility to video the show. I also pay this out of my pocket. (See enclosed personal bank account statements). We use consumer grade equipment to pull off our production. The cost of purchasing closed captioning equipment would be too much for us to handle.

We run a talent show to help our community. We have not as of yet made any profits. Because of our lack of profit, we run our show at the least expensive rates so we can at least be on television. We would prefer to run at a different time to where we feel our audience would be watching, but we can only afford so much.

According to Jason Weimar of KTBS/KPXJ, the cost to provide closed-captioning for my show which is a 1 hour show is $500. per episode. The closed captioning would cost more than the price to air my show. The cost to air The Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show is $450. per episode and the closed captioning will cost $500. per episode. Providing closed captioning would certainly cause an undue burden on my weekly show. Further more, my show mostly consist of musical selections such as singing, dancing, and instrumental entertainment.

Negative Effects of Closed Captioning:

My company was just incorporated on September 1, 2005. My television show premiered on August 27, 2005. My company and televised program has been running for only a few months. We have not obtained any sponsors as of yet. We are already experiencing a financial hardship trying to keep our program running and providing closed captioning would force us to go off the air. Since our program has started, I have been paying out of my pocket to keep the show running. (See attached personal & business bank account statements).

My/My company's finances/resources:

The enclosed documents supports the fact that my finances along with my company's finances and resources are very limited. I work a 9 to 5 job just to keep my television show running. My company is desperately seeking sponsors to keep the show running. Now we are faced with obtaining sponsors for providing closed captioning when we have not obtained any financial support thus far.

At this early stage of our newly established company and televised program, along with our current financial hardships; I see no alternatives to closed captioning that would be feasible or make programming readily accessible to the hearing impaired at this time. Attached are financial documents to support our poor financial status and the inability to provide closed captioning at this time. (Included documents are: my check stubs, company bank statements, my personal bank statements, incorporation documents.)

To meet the deadline, I have sent what information I could put together so that my show could air after the first of the year. Please contact me to let me know what more you need so that we can keep serving our community.

Sincerely,

Before the undersigned, an officer duly commissioned by the laws of Louisiana, on this 13th day of April, 2006, personally appeared Vickie L. Stephens-Roberson
who having been first duly sworn depose and say:

Per your request, Vickie Roberson, the producer of the Vickie Roberson Entertainment Show has submitted additional information on behalf of her company, Vickie Roberson Productions Corporation.

Please note that the company was incorporated in September of 2005. Being that the company had only started up for not even quite 3 months the corporation had no income during the 2005 tax year. The company's Federal Tax Return reflects this.

Again, providing close caption, a sign language interpreter, or text on the screen will all cause an undue burden on this struggling company. We see no other reasonable alternatives at this time.

If, we are forced to provide closed captioning, our only alternative will be to go off the air.

Again, the program showcases local talent such as singing, and dancing and includes very little talking. Mrs. Roberson usually introduces the acts then closes the show. The goal of her program is to showcase and expose local talent. Ms. Roberson hopes that you view all enclosed documents and contact her soon to let her know if the provided information and documents supports the company/program's request for exemption from close captioning. If more information is needed, please let Mrs. Roberson know so that she and her company can continue serving their community.
